

“Rarely in the life of the church does God raise a group with a sound so captivating that you cannot stop listening to the music. Such is the sound of Family Legacy, Eric, Cheryl and Shelia have that God given talent that transcends different styles and speaks to the heart of the listener. I highly recommend Family Legacy to you. I truly believe once you hear them, you will be captured by the Spirit of the living God that they know and sing for.”

“Singers, groups, bands, and performers are everywhere these days. I know in my 20 years experience of performing, singing, sound, and studio engineering and producing that I have seen and heard many. I can truly say from experience that good, solid talent is hard to come by. I can honestly say that Family Legacy is good, solid talent, to say the least. Not only are they a fantastic mixed trio, they are genuine, true Christians. I had the privilege of engineering their latest album and what a treat it was. I was amazed at how they poured their hearts into their recording. They have a sound that can only come from true family. They are dedicated to the music, and they don’t mind at all to go the extra mile to see that they get the job done. The best part of it all is that they know where their help comes from. Their honest, humble attitudes make their songs so much more. If you are looking for the total package, look no further than Family Legacy. They are the real deal!”

“As the owner of a sound company, I have had the pleasure of hearing Family Legacy several times in shows around the state. As the entertainment chairperson for the Breckinridge County Fair Board, I have even hired them to perform. Family Legacy has that magical harmony that most groups can only dream about. With a look of the family next door, they welcome you into their songs for a gospel experience that will both fill your heart and ease your soul.”

“All who love family harmony and gospel music will love the CD Family Legacy has produced. In a blend of slow, thoughtful songs such as ‘There’s a Miracle for Me,’ with up-tempo numbers including ‘Let My God Work It Out,’ the trio blesses its listeners with worshipful, meaningful, soul-stirring music. The group is a source of pride to the locals in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, and we wish for them every success. We know they live their faith and are committed to sharing the gospel with the talent God has given them. Eric’s background with the Veterans Quartet earned him the experience to produce a quality sound, adding to the field of Southern Gospel another great trio.”
